On 15th to 17th April 2024, an Internship External Viva was conducted for third-year Advanced English students. This viva will focus on Digital Marketing, highlighting the importance of Co-Skills, ensuring that participants gain practical insights into the industry. Students will have the opportunity to showcase their knowledge and understanding of digital marketing strategies, while also emphasizing the significance of effective communication in conveying marketing messages. The viva aims to assess students' proficiency in applying theoretical concepts to real-world scenarios and evaluating their ability to integrate various skills for comprehensive marketing strategies.

Literary Association:

Under the aegis of the Literary Association, a heartwarming farewell ceremony was organized by the first and second year students of advanced English to bid adieu to final year advanced English. The gathering was filled with nostalgic moments as members of the department, came together to show their appreciation for Dr. D. Fathima Rani's dedicated service and mentorship as a new HOD. The event concluded with warm wishes for Final year students about future endeavors and a renewed commitment from the students to carry forward the legacy of academic excellence that had instilled in them.
